The third system of musical notation. It includes a 'rit.' (ritardando) marking above the treble staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

CHORUS.

1. We Praise thee fair land wreath thy for - head to - day,

The chorus section of the song. It begins with a '1.' indicating the first ending. The musical notation is in the same key and time signature as the previous sections. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

Entered according to the Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year 1904, by Arthur Depew, in the office of the Minister of Agriculture.

II.

Thy heroes have conquered and shone in the strife
when death and destruction rode on for thy life,
Thy victories ring o'er thy broad fields alway,
The crown on thy head may it know no decay.

CHORUS.

We praise thee broad land, thou art strong 'gainst the foe,
Thy name we will honor wherever we go.

III.

Thy statesmen and leaders have brought thee their best
To make thee a gem fit to shine with the rest,
Of Britain's possessions, oh, noble and brave!
Long live our good King, and our Canada save.

CHORUS.

We praise thee dear land, 'neath the flag of the free,
The strongest and mightiest, that floats o'er the sea.

IV.

We now bring our tributes and lay at thy feet,
May thine be the victories and never defeat,
Our God keep us loyal to the land that we love,
Until we shall change for the country above.

CHORUS

We praise thee our land, patriots still, traitors naye,
Raise the banners on high, praise thee here and for aye
